WHereas by an Advertisement in the Gazette of the 11th Day of January last, it was advertised, that the Creditors of William Cook, late of Hatton Garden, Cheesemonger, who had already proved their Debts and signed the Deed of Composition, might receive their Dividend of the said William Cook's Estate on Thursday the 14th Day of February Instant, at the Salutation Tavern by Billingsgate, and all other Creditors of the said William Cook, who had not duly proved their Debts, were desired to do the same, and apply to Mr. Robert Henshaw, Attorney at Law near London Stone, to sign the said Deed, otherwise they would be excluded the said Dividend. At which Time and Place very few of the said Mr. Cook's Creditors did attend and prove their Debts; they are therefore desired to attend for that Purpose on Wednesday the 5th Day of March next, at Six of the Clock in the Evening, otherwise the whole Money will be divided, and they will be excluded any Dividend of the said Mr. Cook's Estate.

THE Creditors of Thomas Tompson, late of Waltham-Abbey, in Essex, Draper, against whom a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded, are desired to meet the Assignees on Wednesday the 5th of March next, at Four in the Afternoon, at Old Tom's Coffee House in Birchin Lane, in order to consent to the Disposal of the said Bankrupt's Freehold Estate, consisting of two Dwelling Houses, and also the Bankrupt's Copyhold Estate, consisting of Garden Ground, both situate in Waltham-Abbey aforesaid; at which Time and Place all Persons may bid for the said Estates, which will then be peremptorily Sold to the best Bidder. Particulars may be had of Mr. Jesser, Attorney, on Colledge Hill, London,

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Thomas Reddall, late of Eversholt, in the County of Bedford, Gentleman, deceased, are to come in and prove their Debts before William Spicer, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Clifford's Inn, London.

PUrsuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Augustine Punnett, late of Strood, in the County of Kent, but now of New Brentford, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman, are to come and prove their Debts before Robert Holford, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London.
